

QUINTA DA FONTE BELA - The Cathedral of Wine

Located 80 km north of downtown Lisbon, this centuries-old estate features buildings inspired by the "cast-iron architecture" of the late 19th century, designed by Eiffel's engineers. Also known as the Cathedral of Wine, it houses the DFJ headquarters, the winemaking center, the bottling line, the warehouse, the winery with a capacity of 13.5 million liters, the barrel cellar, the cooperage, the laboratory, the guest room, and a 50-hectare vineyard with sustainable agriculture and no irrigation.

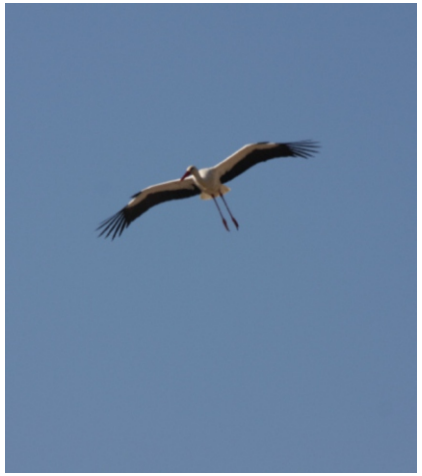

PORTO FRANCO Farm - The Origin

José Neiva Correia's birthplace, this century-old farm, 60 km north of downtown Lisbon, boasts 80 hectares of vineyards cultivated using sustainable agriculture without irrigation, a winemaking center, and storage tanks with a capacity of 3 million liters.

DFJ VINHOS

The New Portugal

We are a Portuguese family-owned winery established in 1998 solely for export to the United Kingdom.

Mr. José Neiva Correia is the owner and chief winemaker creating wines since 1974.

We own 250ha of vineyards certified for sustainable agriculture, without irrigation.

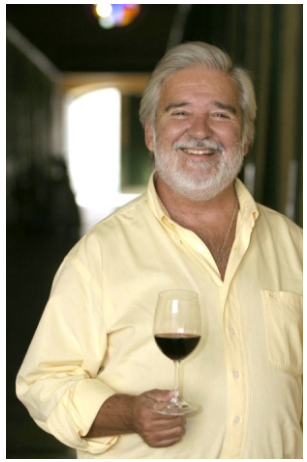

Today we export more than 99% of the more than 10 million bottles we produce to more than 50 countries.
Our wines are suitable to Vegetarians and Vegan consumers.

Our goal “CREATING THE WINES THAT PEOPLE LOVE TO SHARE!”

We hold the 2024/2027 SUSTAINABILITY CERTIFICATION.

We operate under the BRCGS Quality Certification 2026/2027 - AA+ grade.

We won more than 6908 awards and trophies since 2010.
We were the 2nd Most Awarded Winery in the World in 2024 (GWMR).
The Most awarded wine in the word in 2024 (GWMR) was our ESCADA Reserva red.
Our wines have reached 16 times the Wine Enthusiast's list of 100 TOP BEST BUY OF THE YEAR, including our VEGA which came in
